Our Mission

"We commit to ongoing innovation and inspiring our customers with a wide assortment of quality products and customized service."

Since 1984, Flamingo Holland has been dedicated to delivering the highest quality flower bulbs and individualizing our customer care to meet each grower's needs. With our unique ability to store products in our own state-of-the-art coolers, we supply bulbs to growers across the United States from our facilities in Vista, California and Edison, New Jersey. We find our efficiency, flexibility, and turnaround time to be incomparable, providing unmatched service no matter the location.

We continually consult with our partners and technical specialists in The Netherlands to ensure we are expressly informed of bulb growing performance, new varieties, and emerging trends. We pride ourselves on the communication we establish and care we invest in our customer relations and believe this sets our company apart from the rest. Our team of representatives empowers every grower to strive for success, take on new challenges and pursue growth. We are passionate about bulbs, and Flamingo Holland is where passion comes to bloom!

We wish you a prosperous and rewarding 2025-2026 season and beyond!
