Flamingo Holland Inc.

Since its establishment in 1984, Flamingo Holland Inc. has been dedicated to delivering the highest quality flower bulbs across the United States. As a subsidiary of Van den Bos Flowerbulbs, Flamingo Holland carries forth an 80-year legacy that is underpinned with passion and dedicated to serving flower growers with top quality products and utmost customer care.

From import to storage to delivery, our highest priority is to maintain the quality of each bulb to ensure every grower's success. Our unique ability to store products in our high-capacity, temperature-controlled warehouses in Vista, California and Edison, New Jersey lends the opportunity to deliver bulbs seasonally and year-round. With efficiency, flexibility, and exceptional turnaround time, we deliver service and satisfaction with every order. Offering more than 700 varieties of bulbs across our lilies, freesias, callas and additional cultivars, each bulb holds a promise of growth, beauty and reliability.

Flamingo Holland individualizes service to meet each grower's unique needs for production. Every team member has a direct line to technical specialists in The Netherlands to ensure we are expressly informed of bulb harvest conditions, new varieties, and emerging market trends. We take pride in the care and communication we invest in our relationships, and our team strives to empower every grower to embrace new challenges and achieve ongoing success.

As we continue our own legacy of over 40 years, Flamingo Holland remains passionate about bulbs and sharing our values with American flower growers. We value genuine, lasting relationships and ongoing collaboration with our customers, sharing our belief that each bulb holds the promise of growth, beauty and reliability. The Flamingo Holland team is passionate about bulbs and devoted to bringing that passion to bloom with you in the 2026-2027 season and beyond!
